

1. Discuss the context in which gender inequality occurs in university, and other educational institutes. Why is this an issue that should be tackled? Provide evidence and examples of gender inequality, in regards to the dimensions of justice, associational and recognition justice.